

Part time Teacher of English

Manchester Islamic Educational Trust Ltd

Apply by: Friday 20 November 2020

Job start: January 2021

Contract type: Until 31st August 2021, position will be reviewed for Sept'2021.

Salary: Starting salary is dependent on qualifications, skills, experience, and will range from £21,019 - £25,585 per annum (pro rata for part time).

We are looking for a qualified teacher of English to join our enthusiastic team from January 2021. The successful candidate will work in a caring and energetic school with distinctive ethos. You will be required to teach classes at KS3 and KS4 three to four days a week between Manchester Islamic Grammar School for Girls and K D Grammar School for Boys which is 1.5 miles from one school to another. You will be expected to contribute to maintaining the high standards of this successful department.

Manchester Islamic Grammar School for Girls is an 'Ofsted Outstanding' rated independent school (for the third consecutive time.) The department has a passion for English and a commitment to delivering outstanding teaching and learning. The successful candidate will lead by example and create a positive culture of high ambition both for staff and students. KDGB (Kassim Darwish Grammar School for Boys) is an independent Grammar School for 125 boys aged 11-16 situated in South Manchester and is a member of the Independent Schools Association. Although comprehensive in intake, its results are exceptionally high. In the GCSE Performance tables, the school features consistently amongst the highest performing boys' schools in Manchester. With small class sizes, students and teachers have the opportunity to enable each boy to reach his full potential.

The school offers a supportive environment for both staff and students. Student motivation is high, and all staff is expected to recognise, nurture and support the educational, emotional and spiritual development of every student. We have a fundamental desire to challenge children to achieve better and higher.

The successful candidate should have a respect of the faith ethos of the school, contribute to the enrichment and extra- curricular activities and have a proven record of inspired teaching with a dynamic approach.

This post is open to both experienced and newly qualified teachers.

Benefits:

- On-site parking
- Ramadhan holidays
- Eid holidays

In return, we offer an excellent environment of small teaching groups, where students are respectful, responsive and willing to learn, and no distractions from un-engaged students. Additional leave for Ramadhan, Eid and the Day of Arafat.

If you are as passionate and motivated by this challenge as we are, and think this might be the role for you. Please download an application form and job description from our school website at www.kdgb.miet.uk. You can also contact our Bursar (Eunice Liew) by email on bursar@kdgb.miet.uk or further details or to arrange a visit to school on request.

Completed Applications should be returned with a supporting statement (maximum 2 A4 pages) to the Bursar via email at bursar@kdgb.miet.uk

Closing date for applications: Friday 20 November 2020 at 12pm

Safeguarding Recruitment Statement:

Both schools are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and vulnerable adults and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. This appointment is subject to the satisfactory completion of all pre-employment checks, including an Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) Check and Secretary of State Prohibition Order check.
